

Third Joint Research Conference of the Society for the Study of Occupation: USA (SSO:USA) & the Canadian Society of Occupational Scientists (CSOS)

THE SCHEDULE OF SCIENTIFIC SESSIONS & CONFERENCE EVENTS MAY BE REVISED PRIOR TO THE START OF CONFERENCE DUE TO UNFORESEEN CIRCUMSTANCES. THE FINAL CONFERENCE SCHEDULE WILL BE PROVIDED TO ATTENDEES IN THE ONSITE PACKET.

WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 28

3 :00 pm – 6 :00 pm	Registration table open Extended Lobby
5 :00 pm – 6 :30 pm	SSO:USA Board Meeting Boardroom
5 :00 pm – 6 :30 pm	CSOS Board Meeting Longfellow Room
7 :00 pm – 9 :00 pm	Welcome & Opening Reception Atlantic Room Melissa Park, CSOS Vice-president, & Jyothi Gupta, SSO:USA Director Jennifer Pitonyak & Catherine Vallée, Conference Co-Chairs Roxie Black, Local Site Coordinator Glenn Cummings, USM President Melissa Park & John White, CSOS & SSO:USA History & Traditions

THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 29

7 :00 am – 4 :00 pm	Registration table open Extended Lobby
7 :30 am – 8 :30 am	Continental breakfast - included with conference registration Atlantic Room
	Regency Room	Armory Room	Portland Room
8 :30 am – 10 :00 am	Papers - Oppression, recovery and mental health The meaning of fighting and hiding for persons diagnosed with mental illness Jiameng Xu, Melissa Park	Papers – Work, unemployment and policies Alternative productivity structures and reimbursement models and their role in achieving occupational justice for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities – A philosophical conundrum Rosemary Lysaght, Terry Krupa	Forum The development of occupational science outside the Anglophone sphere: Enacting global collaboration Lilian Magalhaes, Lisette Farias, Natalia Rivas-Quarneti, Liliana Alvarez, Ana Paula Malfitano
	The unwitting (re)production of occupational ghettos: Reflections on embodiment, (mis)recognition, social (in)justice for persons with lived experience of mental illness Melissa Park, Janet Stewart	Using a critical occupational perspective to locate – and begin to fill – “cracks” in public policy Rebecca M. Aldrich, Debbie Laliberte Rudman
	Exploring the meaning of recovery to individuals with severe and persistent mental illness Lynne M. Anderson Clarke	Late life unemployment and life satisfaction Maren Voss, Man Hung, Lori Wadsberg, Wei Chen, Wendy C. Birmingham
10 :00 am – 10 :30 am	Networking break Atlantic Room
10 :30 am – 11 :30 am	Poster session Atlantic Room
11 :30 am – 2 :00 pm	Occupational balance time - Lunch on your own
	Regency Room	Armory Room	Portland Room
2 :00 pm – 3 :30 pm	Papers- Education and transitions to work Critical thinking about occupation: A framework for guiding pedagogy in	Papers- Disability and family occupations Participation as transaction: The functional coordination of family occupation	Panel Expanding ‘conditions of occupational therapy Jennifer S. Pitonyak , Lynn Jaffee, Sarah K. Nielsen, Cecille Corsilles-Sy, Shirley P. O'Brien	Adrienne F. Miao	possibility': Employing critical perspectives in occupational science scholarship Debbie Laliberte Rudman, Rebecca Aldrich, Suzanne Huot , Alison J. Gerlach , Gail Teachman

	The experiences and meaning of participating in the co-occupation of peer mentoring Beth Ekelman	Behavioral inflexibility in ASD: Impact on family occupations Chetna Sethi, Wanqing Zhang, Clare Harrop
	Policy and evidence review on work transition interventions and work disruptions of post- secondary student graduates with disabilities: Insights for social and education policy Lynn Shaw, James O'Brien, Kristen Bishop	Photographs and family health: Occupational insight and implications Paula A. Rabaey, Kristin Carlson, Beth DeGrace
3:30 pm – 3:45 pm	Break
3 :45 pm – 5:00 pm	2016 Townsend & Polatajko Lectureship Atlantic Room “Playing in the sandbox” Susan Forwell, PhD., OT(C), FCAOT Department Head and Associate Professor Department of Occupational Sciences & Occupational Therapy University of British Columbia, Vancouver, CA
5 :00 pm – 5 :30 pm	Mug Exchange Atlantic Room
6 :00 pm	Occupational balance time – Dinner on your own in Portland

FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 30

7 :00 am – 5 :00 pm	Registration table open Extended Lobby
7 :30 am – 8 :30 am	Continental breakfast - included with conference registration Atlantic Room
	Regency Room	Armory Room	Portland Room
8 :30 am – 10 :00 am	Papers- Daily occupations Experience of sleep in individuals with spinal cord injury Jeanine Blanchard, Donald J. Fogelberg, Natalie E. Leland	Papers – Environment, spaces and places Design, the built environment, and pedagogy: The interaction occurring through occupation of active learning. Caryn Husman, Caroline Beals	Panel Problematizing the uptake of occupational justice from a critical occupational perspective Lisette Farias, Tanya Elizabeth Benjamin, Rebecca Janzen, Debbie Laliberte Rudman
	Parent strategies to support mealtime participation in children with Autism Spectrum Disorders Karla Ausderau, Brittany St. John, Kristen Kwaterski, Beth Nieuwenhuis	Tiny homes for adults with mental illness: Using place to foster social participation and community integration Antoine Bailliard, Amy Wilson, Gary Cuddeback P, Thava Mahadevan, Rebecca Sorensen
	Latino families’ experiences of their children with Autism Spectrum Disorder using school district transportation: Implications for transportation mobility and participation Amber Angell, Olga Solomon	Interactional spaces: families, cars, and autism Nancy Bagatell, Ashley Mason
10 :00 am – 10 :30 am	Networking break Atlantic Room
	Regency Room	Armory Room	Portland Room
10 :30 am – 12 :00 pm	Papers – Social essence of occupation and caregiving A theoretical exploration of the social	Forum Examining occupation through a critical occupational approach	Panel Broadening the occupational science lens: Racial

	essence of occupation Ryan Lavalley	Janet Njelesani, Gail Teachman, Shanon Phelan, Evelyne Durocher, Yani Hamdani	Considerations in the landscape of shifting U.S. demographics Sandra M. Dunbar, Jyothi Gupta, Jennifer S. Pitonyak , Mackenzi Pergolotti, Charlotte Royeen
	Disrupted dance or just out of step? The role of sociocultural norms and individual beliefs on co-occupation Barbara Nadeau
	“We need you”: When research participation enacts a way to care for the self Carol Haywood
12 :00 pm – 3 :00 pm	Occupational balance time Box lunch - included with conference registration Atlantic Room
	Regency Room	Armory Room	Portland Room
3 :00 pm – 4 :30 pm	Papers- Parenting The transactional effects between family occupations and child emotion regulation Mie-Ling Lin, Richard Faldowski, Brian Boyd, Ruth Humphry	Papers – Aging, occupational possibilities and participation Changing neighborhoods and reshaping occupations: Experiences of older African-Americans in Detroit Heather A. Fritz, Malcolm P. Cutchin	Panel What does experience have to do with it? Narrative-phenomenological approaches to social accountability and social justice in occupational science Jiameng Xu, Rossio Motta, Keven Lee, Alissa Low, Melissa Park
	The influence of disability on paternal conflict between work and family Aaron Bonsall	Discourses of risk: Implications for the shaping of occupational possibilities for older adults Mandy Stanley, Debbie Laliberte Rudman
	Occupational identity and family “screen time” decisions Anne Cronin, Kaitlin Sims	Health-related quality of life of older adults with cancer: Race, illness and participation in occupation. Mackenzi Pergolotti, Allison M. Deal, Ashley L. Bryant, Jeannette T. Bensen, Grant R. Williams
4 :30 pm – 5 :00 pm	Networking break Atlantic Room Silent Auction set-up

	Armory Room
5 :00 pm – 6 :15 pm	SSO:USA Business Meeting Atlantic Room	CSOS Open Forum Room TBA
6 :15 pm – 7 :00 pm	Break
7 :00 pm – 9 :00 pm	Celebration of Accomplishments Dinner reception - included with conference registration Atlantic Room Silent Auction Armory Room
	Sing-along Regency Room

SATURDAY OCTOBER 1

7 :00 am – 12:00 pm	Registration table open Extended Lobby
7 :30 am – 8 :30 am	Continental breakfast - included with conference registration Student networking round table Atlantic Room
8 :30 am – 10 :00 am	2016 Ruth Zemke Lecture in Occupational Science Atlantic Room “Pioneering OT and OS: Ideas and Practitioners before 1917” Kathlyn L. Reed, PhD., OTR, FAOTA, MLIS Associate Professor, Emerita Texas Woman's University - Houston Campus, Texas
10 :00 am – 10 :30 am	Networking break Atlantic Room
	Regency Room	Armory Room	Portland Room
10 :30 am – 12 :00 pm	Papers - Poverty, immigration and occupation The visible and invisible occupations of food provisioning in low income families Brenda L. Beagan	Papers – Roots and contributions of OS Personal influences on Meyer's article "Philosophy of Occupation Therapy" Kathlyn L. Reed	Panel Considerations on what moves us: Autistic sociality and occupational justice Keven Lee, Mary C. Lawlor, Melissa Park
	“Otra vez a la lucha”-“ to the fight again”: Immigrants’ occupational struggles during the socioeconomic crisis in Spain Natalia Rivas-Quarneti, Lilian Magalhaes, María-Jesús Movilla-Fernández	“Academic innovation in service of” what? An analysis of occupational science dissertation abstracts Rebecca M. Aldrich, Jyothi Gupta
	Paper - Transitions Transition from an occupational perspective: Defining and presenting a model of life transition unrelated to health Joseph Romanyk , Todd Young , Katie Lee	Identifying and understanding the contributions of research: An umbrella review Nedra R. Peter, Anita Khotari, Sara Masood

	Bunting, Susan J. Forwell
12 :00 pm – 1 :30 pm	Networking lunch - included with conference registration Informal round table discussions in Atlantic Room
	Room TBA
	Forum: Disseminating occupational science: An SSO:USA journal? Bonnie Kennedy, Sheama Krishnagiri, Doris Pierce, Pollie Price
	Regency Room	Armory Room	Portland Room
1 :30 pm – 2 :30 pm	Papers – Self-determination, participation and engagement Making visible the ruling relations of participation in occupation for institutionalized adults with intellectual disabilities Khalilah R. Johnson	Papers - An Eastern-Western dialogue Uchi/Soto (Inside/Outside): Indexing in social practice in Japanese society Etsuko Odawara	Papers – Substance use and occupation An occupational justice perspective of people’s experiences while on Methadone Maintenance Treatment Suzanne Huot, Katrina Warren
	Occupational engagement and self-determination: Connections for individuals with intellectual disabilities Wanda J. Mahoney	Evolving 5th century Kado roles, habits & routines into millennial western occupation Ricardo C. Carrasco	Substance use among professionals and professional students: Transforming occupational performance and experience Niki Kiepek, Jonnie-Lyn Baron
2 :30 pm – 3 :00 pm	Networking break Atlantic Room
3 :00 pm – 4 :30 pm	Closing Session CSOS & SSO:USA Invited Panel: Translation of Occupational Science to Diverse Applications Jyothi Gupta, Mackenzi Pergolotti, Debbie Laliberte Rudman, Catherine Vallée Atlantic Room

POSTERS

- P1. Kendra Heatwole Shank
Getting groceries and good vibes: The layered occupation of buying food
- P2. Carol Haywood
Pulled from the streets: Quest narratives among young men with violently-acquired spinal cord injuries
- P3. Yan Cao, Ji Won Kim, Milad Shajari , Tamara Zimonjic, Suzanne Huot
Negotiating occupational engagement following international migration: examining the role of language
- P4. Jeanine Blanchard, Jenny Martinez, Stacey Schepens Niemiec
¡Vivir Mi Vida!: A pilot study of a lifestyle intervention to optimize health outcomes in Latino patients
- P5. Emily Kilroy, Laura Harrison, Sharon Cermak , Lisa Aziz-Zadeh
Heterogeneous sensorimotor deficits during imitation in Autism Spectrum Disorder
- P6. Kathleen Eglseder
The lived experiences and occupations of intimate partners of individuals with spinal cord injury related to sexuality
- P7. Jenna Yeager
Occupational participation of college student veterans
- P8. Adrienne F. Miao
“And you’re never going to do it right”: Gatekeeper reflections and recommendations for designing family studies.

- P9. Lisa Crabtree
Perceived barriers and supports to employment for individuals on the autism spectrum
- P10. Jan Froehlich, Elizabeth Crampsey, Rachel Finer, Danielle LaVere, Erin Schewenke, Cinder Savage
Playfulness in the practitioner
- P11. Laura Y. Bulk, Adam Easterbrook, Tal Jarus
“We are nothing alike”: marginalization of students with disabilities
- P12. Caroline Harkins McCarty
“We’re making it work, together”: Using ethnography and photovoice to understand the occupations of families who adopt from foster care
- P13. Kristine L Haertl
Wellness occupations in persons with mental illness: A utilization focused evaluation project