Thursday 10/3/2019

Time	Event, Location
9:00 am-12:00 pm	SSO:USA Board Meeting –Executive Boardroom
1:00 pm-5:00 pm	Preconference Institute --Flagstaff Transformative Mixed Methods Designs in Evaluation for Social, Environmental and Economic Justice Donna M. Mertens, Professor Emeritus, Gallaudet University Occupational science recognizes the importance of working towards social transformation and the use of innovative methods. Developments in the use of mixed methods have extended beyond the practice of combining surveys and focus groups. The sophistication of transformative mixed methods designs in research will be explained and demonstrated through illustrative culturally responsive examples taken from diverse sectors and geographical regions. Transformative mixed methods designs will include applications for designing an intervention and determining its effectiveness. Participants will have the opportunity to create transformative mixed methods designs using vignettes that are relevant to the field of occupational science.
5:15 pm-6:30 pm	SSO:USA 2019 Welcome Reception –Paradise Park Time to launch the exciting 2019 SSO:USA Conference, delving into the darker side of occupations! Cash bar and crudité.
